Reading Journal: Stop that hamster!

1. Why did you choose this book?

When I read the title on the cover, I saw two boys try to catch the hamster. The hamster looks frightened. The two boys envy a school girl who has a small and adorable hamster. When they go home, they ask their mother to buy them a hamster. This story is funny and interesting.

2. Who is/ are your favourite character(s)?

I like hamsters and I also like animals. Therefore, my favourite character is the cute hamster. It is very cute and lovely as described in the story. I like it very much.

3. What lesson do you learn from the book?

I learn that when we want to buy a pet, we should think if we can take care of the pet for its whole life or not. It is important that we should think before buying a pet. If we buy a small pet, we should put it in a cage. If we do not do so, the pet will run away.

Reading Journal: The Jackals and The Goat

1. Why did you choose this book?

2. Who is/ are your favourite character(s)?

My favourite characters are the jackals, because they look like wolves and foxes. I think they are very beautiful. They also look like dogs. I regard them as my favourite characters because the illustration of them is very beautiful. They are not scary, instead, they are funny and kind.

3. What lesson do you learn from the book?

This book is about a goat nanny and jackals. They tell lies to the goats in order to eat them. The jackals are very hungry and go to the big forest. They see lots of goats there. I learn that we shouldn't tell lies, like jackals who tell lies to the goats. If I tell lies, other people will hate us. When I was a child, my parents taught me not to tell lies. Therefore, if I tell lies, my parents will be very upset and disappointed.
