Dear Parents/ Guardians,

S.6 Mock Examinations

In order to assess our students' academic performance and consolidate their knowledge, S.6 Mock Examinations are scheduled from 9th March to 19th March, 2021. Students are required to sit for the examinations in accordance with the examination timetable. They are advised to return home for revision after the exams of the day are over. During the examination period, the school library will be open to students as usual.

Should your child be absent from school on any day during the examination period for reasons of sickness or otherwise, you are expected to notify the school by phone before 8:00 a.m. on that day. Students should take the initiative to submit relevant supporting documents on the next day. Late application will not be accepted. If the application is accepted, the School will give a statistically assessed mark for the subject the student was absent from based on their results in previous uniform test(s)/ examination(s)/ other assessment(s).

The last school day for S.6 students is 26th March, 2021 (Friday), after which they are expected to make the best use of their time studying in preparation for the public examinations.

Thank you for your kind attention.

Yours faithfully,
